

Free Group Esoteric Healing Sessions

The free Group Esoteric Healing sessions will be provided by a group of formally trained Esoteric Healing practitioners.

There is no charge for these group sessions; however, you agree to complete an anonymous feedback form that will be emailed to you a few days after the session.

Practitioners providing these Group Esoteric Healing sessions will facilitate a sense of balance in the subtle energy field that surrounds the physical body. This process occurs according to the Will of the client's Soul and may help the body begin the process of self-healing. Self-healing may happen at the physical, emotional, mental, and/or spiritual level of a client.

There is nothing special for you to do to receive the benefits of these Group Esoteric Healing sessions. There is no online link for you to join – these are distance sessions. You may choose to sit quietly during the stated session time, or it is ok if you need to continue to work or travel. If you forget, not to worry. Whatever your reason, when you register, we have your name and you will be included in the Group Esoteric Healing session.

The group sessions will last for 30 minutes.

Registration for these sessions opens on the Saturday prior to the scheduled session date and will close as of midnight the night before the scheduled session. Outside of this span of registration time, a message is provided that the registration link has expired. So please register for the next Group Esoteric Healing session when the link opens for registration.
