Carolyn Rose Frost

Carolyn Rose Frost moved to the US from England in 1974. She lives a life of service and creativity, having spent many years as a teacher, a consultant, and mentor. She is a Reiki Master/Teacher, Oneness Blessing Giver, and Creative Problem Solver.

After raising three sons to adulthood, Carolyn married her high school sweetheart in 2006, who shares her love of family, people, gardening, dance, and music. Never missing a beat, she quickly introduced him to studying esoteric healing!

Carolyn felt her gifts at an early age and has always seen the need to reach and teach children. During the course of Carolyn's life she has designed, developed, and presented creative educational programs for children and adults in public schools and as a consultant/teacher in the private sector. She is able to teach, encourage, inspire, and motivate people to reach their potentials. At one time a foreigner in a new country herself, Carolyn recognized the need for cultural awareness and helped create a program with the International Institute of Toledo that became instrumental in changing curriculum in her local school districts.

She is currently a Professional member of the NAEH, a Level-5 student, and a candidate in the 2013 Practitioner Certification Program. Carolyn serves on the Bylaws, Community Outreach, and Long Range Planning Committees. She volunteers with the Daughters of the British Empire and the Toledo Beach House Family Shelter.

Carolyn accepted the nomination to the Steering Committee to play a role in developing the NAEH into a strong National/International organization and to help make "Esoteric Healing" a household name. She has served on Boards at local, state, and national levels and possesses proven leadership and organizational management skills. Carolyn has an ability to see the "whole" picture, break it down into manageable goals, and create solutions with others.

Susan K. Zimmerman

Susan is currently the President of the National Foundation for Esoteric Healing working with the Steering Committee of NAEH to establish a strong non-profit arm of the NAEH for purposes of fundraising and is on the Long Range Planning Committee.

She is very committed to the NAEH as a professional member of the organization and has delighted in seeing the hard work of the Steering Committee and all the leaders and members that are working to make this organization a strong on-going force in the field of healing work.

She is the owner and creator of PASSAGES Transition Center where she regularly practices esoteric healing and has watched lives change for the better through this powerful and yet gentle healing modality and the co-founder of INTEGRA, an international non-profit working in the area of grief and loss.

Susan also is a life and organizational coach working to empower organizations and individuals through any change/transition. She has done this work for over 20 years and for the last 9 has been able to dedicate full-time to it after leaving her work at Michigan State University in higher education administration.

She is the mother of 2 (now adult) children whom she raised alone after the death of her young husband, thus knowing the importance of working hard towards a goal in order to succeed. She sees this happening with the NAEH and as a person knowing about organizational growth has often said, "The NAEH is functioning at the level of a 20 year old organization with all of its high quality projects such as an excellent newsletter, outstanding journal, impressively dedicated Steering Committee and leadership, and large membership. Just imagine where it will go next!"
